

Solving the DIGITAL DIVIDE and assuring every household has fast, reliable, affordable internet can lead to economic mobility for every household.

Social determinants of health (SDOH) are conditions in the places where people live, learn, work, and play that affect a wide range of health and quality-of-life risks and outcomes.

By addressing the digital divide, people can accomplish the following which impact SDOH leading to a healthier more enjoyable life.

Neighborhood and Environment	Health and Health Care	Social and Community	Education	Economic Stability
1. Get weather advisory alerts	9. Telemedicine	20. Facetime family and friends	28. Access to job applications and processes	37. Learn about jobs
2. Find housing	10. Make a doctor's appointment	21. Find community event information	29. Access to career information	38. Send resumes
3. Find rent and mortgage resources	11. Apply for benefits	22. On-line socialization	30. Access to education support organizations	39. Apply for jobs
4. Apply for apartment or home	12. Apply for Medicare	23. On-line appointments	31. Job training	40. Online banking
5. Reach property management staff	13. Apply for Food Bank support	24. On-line celebrations	32. ESL classes and supports	41. Financial Literacy classes
6. Secure eviction prevention information	14. Find Health Fairs	25. Access to email and photo sharing with friends and family	33. Literacy programs	42. Budget classes
7. Apply for COSA and Bexar programs	15. Get Nutritional education	26. Improved isolation, studies show mood elevation	34. Apply for College	43. Internet safety and fraud classes
8. Emergency SERVICES can better communicate	16. On-line Exercise classes	27. Belonging	35. Homework help	44. Eviction Prevention classes
	17. Senior classes and social connection		36. Apply for summer camps and children's activities	45. Utilities and rent assistance programs
	18. Matter of Balance training			46. Continued education and higher ed programs
	19. Support Domestic Violence survivors			